In the meantime, we feel compelled to state that Controller Connoily has kept back nothing, and that the persons in possession of all the secrets fully exonerate Connolly from all participation in the actual robberies of papers from his office. In fact, Connolly is "making a clean breast of it," as the saying goes, and the public will reap the benefit. Such a nest of thieves was never unearthed in this world before, and we carnestly hope that before the week is out, the State's Prison will open its doors to receive them. We shall then leave the public to decide whether out long, and often discouraging warfare, against this when you are the Cardinal and when the gang entitles us to their censure or ap-

McCiellan, professed ome arxiety about the preservation of the eace, and that hint from him may mean a great deal. The police are largely un-der his control—there is too much reason der his control—there is too much reason to believe that Manierre and other or the Police Commissioners would give such orders as he directed. But any uneastiness on this foore ought to be allayed by the recollection that the police did their duty faithfully on the 12th of July, and we believe that they will do it again, no matter what emergency may arise, and be found on the side of the public rather than on the side of the public rather than on the side of the thioves. It is, however, for the public rather ed had Hull resigned a few days ago.

Now, it is of no consequence whother he resigns or not. He is only Mayor of this city for a xery short time longer. What pleasure could it be to There's Rosencrantz and Guildenstern in the same play A lively pair, they are. I've plajed both—might have been put to double them, it that had been possible—and never got a hand for either. It's my belief that Shakapeare wrote the part of Rosencrantz to spite somebody. He's got nothing to do, and say some of the hardest sentences to speak in the whole play. Try to get this into your head, and then when you have got it, try to speak it: "The cease of majesty dies not alone; but, like a guit doth draw what's near it with it; it is a massy wheel, fixed on the summit of the highest mount, to whose large spokes ten a massy wheel, fixed on the summit of the highest mount, to whose huge spokes ten thousand lesser things are mortised and adjoined, which, when it falls, each small annexment, 'petty consequence, attends the boisterous ruin." What about Voltimand, Cornelius, Francisco, about Voltimend, Cornellus, Francisco, Fortibas, Bernardo Maraellus, the priest, and the captain? Why, there are cleven characters in this one play that are as bad as they can be. Not one of them ever gets pair of new silk tights to play Salanio, or Salanio? They're both swells, and most wear silk tights, but they haven't a good line between them. REPUBLICAN STATE THEKET. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, A 13 DAVID STANTON, OF BRAVER: Co.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL. ROBERT R. BEATH, OF SCHUYLKILL The Demoralized Democracy. There is no sensation of the day equal to the uncarthing of the Tammany frauds, departed for home yesterday, but were no-ard the pillorying of the chiefs of the Tammany Ring. It is about the only thing talked of from one end of the country to the other. New I ark city rocks with the stated heretofore, is to make reparation for excitement. The papers there of every the masseure of French citizens at Tienstripe are full of it. It is the one topic in the streets on change, in the busses, at and caricatures illustrating the whole story. A great political resolution is sweeping over the whole country, from concludes with these word: "Wherever when the war was just over. For all the Democracy had to go before the people on olio their record, and to accept all the Repubstruction, and then they were going to ride into power "just for a change." Grant's administration hardly gave them a handle. Peace was to be preserved, with in obedience to the request of Deputy Connational honor and satisfaction secured for wrongs suffered. The Democracy had record, savoring of violent revolution at Commissioner on Street they promised to depart, and they asked at a Democratic love-least, last Fourth of July, became its champion, Democratic presses sprung up all over the country, and at last a political revolution that should turn over the Federal Government to Temenany was confidently looked for. But the revolution has taken another turn, ized party the county has ever seen, since its overwhelming defeat under McCiellan and the Chicago platform. The cause is the cause of all political defeat, lose of public confidence. The unmarking of the greed, immorality, cant and crime of the Cammany leaders has fallen like a thunhave tried to make light of this thing, and a sneer of contempt. They have denied, protected, acreened, suppressed, prevailcated, so much about Tammany that they have lost all credit for dealing fairly as public journalists with the news of 'he They will now be compelled to change front, eat their own words, join in the cry of "etop thief!" whistle Tamhour repentance will never do. marched from poll to poll like companies of soldiers. If one of them was challenged, the result depended upon the locality; in a disreputable neighborhood, the challenger was knocked into the guiter, and probably locked up by the police for disturbing the polls. In a district where this would not answer, the secused was taken before a police magistrate, who sat all day to hear just and the following account of the firing on the British vessel in Haytien waters by the soldiers. If one of them was being fed with supplies intended for other tribes. Governor Potts recommends special provision be made for substitute these Indians where they are in hope that this would have a favorable effect on Sitting Bull and his followers, who will almost certainly attack the Northern Pacific parties.

where this would not answer, the accused was taken before a police magistrate, who sat all day to hear just such cases, and who let him out at once on bail, the necessary bail being also on hand for the purpose, and the repeater was usually back at the polic, and hard at work, before the challenger, and no one ever heard of such a case being brought to trial afterward.

In another way were these repeaters need. Many people, especially wealthy Republicans, do not vote. It is the duty of every man to vote; this is one of the obligations he assumes, and rather than have the duty neglected, Tammany sees that it is performed. Toward the latter part of the day it will be found that certain persons who are registered have not voted, and it then belongs to the polling officers to perfect outside: and it would sportly it to copy such names on slips and pass them to parties contains and it would horrify, if not amuse, some of her wealthy millionsaires to see what ragged clothed, bloated and fired a salute of twenty-one guns, and faced, and disreputable individuals report sent them at the polis, and perform for them a public duty which they had neg.

Washington, Sept. 22. The lowest pressure which was Thursday afternoon west and probably north west of Minnesots, has moved eastward t Lake Superior, and the barometer ha tallen very rapidly north of the Ohio Valley. The highest pressure is central over Maryland and New Jersey and eastward. A comparatively low barometer continues in southern Florids, with light northeast erly winds. Brisk south and northwest winds extended from Minnesots southers! ato Illinois, and east to Lake Huron Clear weather prevailed generally on the Atlantic and from Upper Michigan. Area not yet received. Haze and smoke prevail from Illinois to Minnesota,

Probabilities—The low pressure in the northwest will probably extend eastward rapidly, with brisk southwest winds on the lakes, but the smoky haze attending it prevents extensive rains in those regions falling becometer, with increasing clouds ness and easterly winds on Saturday along the Atlantic coast, and pleasant weather in the gulf states. Nashville Baces.
